

PARMA & CalPRIMA Team Up Again;

And Having Some Sponsors Would Be Swell!

Folks this is yet another cost-effective and professional karma-building opportunity to help out your public risk management and safety professionals continue their quest to provide quality educational and networking opportunities for all who are interested and in light of the horrific budget picture, PARMA & CalPRIMA are making this workshop FREE.

MARK THE DATE!

PARMA & CalPRIMA Workshop October 22, 2009

Costa Mesa Neighborhood Community Center is located in Costa Mesa at 1845 Park Avenue off 17th Street and the 55 Freeway, next door to the library.

Two of California's premier Public Risk Management organizations are teaming up to provide California's risk management professionals with another terrific workshop.

We are looking for sponsors ($500) to help with our lunch.

(Space permitting, table tops will be available)

Interested?

Contact Zachary Gifford at zgifford@calstate.edu or 562.951.4568